

NEWS RELEASE

Pathfinder Services, Inc. honors Curves Women's Fitness Center

For immediate release
November 29, 2006

Contact: Jason Meyer
(260) 356-0500 ext. 128
(260) 358-6401 Cell

Pathfinder Services, Inc. presented a Community Partner Award to Curves Women's Fitness Center of Wabash on Tuesday. The award honored Curves for offering the client's of Pathfinder Services, Inc. a significant discount for their services in Wabash County. The employees of Curves have been very considerate of the clients of Pathfinder Services and have enabled them to join the facility, be involved in the community, and improve their health and overall well being.

John Niederman, President of Pathfinder Services, Inc. presented the award to Curves along with Lynn Thompson, Community Supports Coordinator, and Becky Howe Residential Manager at Pathfinder Services, Inc.

Pathfinder Services is a local not for profit organization specializing in working with people with disabilities serving Wabash County since 1988. For more information on the services of Pathfinder Services, Inc. please call their Wabash office at (260) 563-1144 or visit www.pathfinderservices.org.

-30-

Editors: For more information please contact Jason Meyer at (260) 356-5324 ext. 128 or via email at jmeyer@pathfinderservices.org.