

Pathfinder Services, Inc. Honors Plymouth Employees for Years of Service

Pathfinder Services, Inc. presented service awards to their Plymouth employees this week during a luncheon on Monday, March 16th at Cristo's Restaurant in Plymouth. Community Support Specialists Nancy Arriaga and Kelly Lips were recognized for 10 years of service by President John Niederman.

Pathfinder Services, Inc. also recognized Community Supports Team Leader Tracy Stacy for five years of service at the luncheon.

Left to right: Tracy Stacy, Team Leader, Kelly Lips, Community Supports Specialist, John Niederman, President, Not pictured: Nancy Arriaga

Pathfinder Services, Inc. would like to personally thank all of their employees for their years of service. Without the help of the people listed above, the organization would not be what it is today.

Pathfinder Services, Inc. is a not-for-profit human services organization based in Huntington, where it was founded in 1966. Pathfinder's has had an office location in Plymouth since 1987. In addition to Marshall and Starke, Pathfinder Services also provides services in Huntington and Wabash Counties.

Pathfinder Services, Inc. currently has a group home opening in Knox, IN. For more information about this group home opening please visit www.pathfinderservices.org. or contact Vicki Washburn at (574) 936-5610 or vwashbur@pathfinderservices.org.