

1st Annual Cornhole Tournament Announces Winners

Pathfinder Services, Inc. and Huntington County Habitat for Humanity partnered to hold their 1st Annual Cornhole Tournament on Saturday, August 8th at Hier's Park in Huntington . The tournament, hosted by Edward Jones and Schneider Electric-Square D, had 32 teams participate.

The team of Jeremy Baxter and Lewis Fuller were crowned Cornhole Champions and received $500! The tournament was a single elimination bracket tournament and the teams played best-2-out-of-3 games to 21 points guaranteeing each team at least 2 games during the tournament. Paula Bartoo won an official Cornhole set used in the tournament.

Lunch was provided by Paesan's Pizza of Huntington and was sponsored by Bolinger's Propane Service/Warren Service & Supply. Everyone who participated also received a free t-shirt made by El Shaddai, Inc. All proceeds raised from the event went to Pathfinder Services, Inc. and Huntington County Habitat for Humanity.

Pathfinder Services, Inc. is a local not for profit organization specializing in working with people with and without disabilities, and has been serving Huntington County since 1966. Pathfinder Services, Inc. serves over 2,000 individuals with and without disabilities throughout Northeast Indiana. For more information on the services of Pathfinder Services, Inc. please visit www.pathfinderservices.org.

Huntington County Habitat for Humanity Inc. is the local Affiliate Habitat for Humanity International, Inc. We are a nonprofit, ecumenical Christian ministry founded on the conviction that every man, woman, and child should have a decent, safe and affordable place to live. We build with people in need regardless of race or religion. We welcome volunteers and supporters from all backgrounds to join our efforts end substandard housing and homelessness in our community and around the globe. For more information on Habitat's Affordable Homeownership program, call 356-7425.