Pathfinder Services Inc. President John Niederman spent Thursday morning from 8:00 until noon working in the organization's Recycling and Refuse Division as a result of the agency's 2005 United Way campaign.

Mr. Niederman spent the first two hours of his morning on back of one of the Recycling division's trucks, picking up recyclables through the streets of Huntington. Mr. Niederman finished up his morning sorting recyclable materials on the Recycling division's line. The organization raised over $163 for their United Way campaign with this promotion, which was titled, "Change Matters, Bring John to your Area campaign." Pathfinder Services Inc. raised $22,800 overall for the United Way in their 2005 campaign.

Pathfinder Services Inc. is a local not for profit organization specializing in working with people with disabilities. The Recycling and Refuse Division of Pathfinder Services Inc. has provided recycling to Huntington County since 1990, and added garbage collection in 2004.
